

About Volga Region Pedagogical Search

Scientific journal of the Ulyanovsk State Pedagogical University named after I.N. Ulyanov "Volga Region Pedagogical Search" was founded in 2012.

ISSN 23407-1052

On March 28, 2017, there was published the first issue of the updated version of the journal. The changes deal with the concept of the journal, its structure, policy, ethics, style, mission editorial council and editorial board.

The editorial board of the scientific journal "Volga Region Pedagogical Search" accepts the articles that correspond to: pedagogical sciences and philological sciences. The articles dealing with sociology, economics, law, psychology, philosophy and political sciences are accepted only on the condition that the author considers the problems that affect the Russian education.

The journal publishes the research on the possibilities of pedagogy as a resource of positive social change and raising the level of social trust. Distinctive features of the journal are the publication of the results of experiments, the search for interdependencies between the development of society and education. The authors are invited to identify rationality not only in scientific discourses, but also in artistic, imperative, evaluative, everyday types of knowledge, as well as in practices of all kinds.
